Erweitertes Logging ab OS5 aktivieren

```
config webfilter profile
    edit "DMZ"
        set options activexfilter javafilter block-invalid-url config web
                set safe-search url
            end
            config ftgd-wf
                unset options
                    config filters
                        edit 1
                            set action block
                            set category 1
                        next
                        edit 2
                            set action block
                            set category 3
                        next
                    end
            end
        set extended-utm-log enable
    next
end
```